Please join us for our first virtual colloquium on Zoom with Dr. Courtney Boen who will present on "The Roles of State & Local Immigration Policy in Shaping Population Patterns of Health Inequality." Dr. Boen is an Assistant Professor and Axilrod Faculty Fellow in the Sociology Department at the University of Pennsylvania; a Research Associate in the Penn Population Studies Center and Population Aging Research Center; and an Affiliate in the Center for the Study of Ethnicity, Race, and Immigration. Her work centers on the social determinants of population health inequality, and she is specifically interested in the social factors that produce racial, nativity-status, and socioeconomic health inequities.
