

The University at Albany
Center for Social and Demographic Analysis (CSDA)

Brown Bag Series
Fall 2012

CSDA would like to invite you to another Brown Bag series designed to offer social science researchers from the University at Albany community tools that may help in their research. Our aim is to organize a series of brown bags introducing research techniques and methods that are widely used in different disciplines.

“Introduction to Zotero”

Presenter: Nicole D’Anna, Ph.D. Student, Department of Sociology
Date: Thursday, September 20, 2012
Time: 12:00pm
Location: CSDA Library, Business Administration, Room B-29 (Main Campus)

“Zotero [zoh-TAIR-oh] is a free, easy-to-use tool to help you collect, organize, cite, and share your research sources. It lives right where you do your work—in the web browser itself.” www.zotero.org

Join us for an introduction to this helpful research tool that allows you to organize your references, store them on the web and sync across multiple workstations, share them with colleagues, and create bibliographies on the fly in a wide variety of citation styles.

This simple tool can help to make your research and writing so much easier and more organized! Come learn how to access this resource and make it work for you!

If you are interested in attending, please register at <http://csda.albany.edu/events-news/seminar-registration.asp>

Please bring your Brown Bag Lunch and we will provide a complimentary beverage and dessert.

We look forward to seeing you there!